

career in a clickbait headline, I've done something wrong." "We need feminism that is not negligent of women of colour, trans women, queer women. We need feminism that protects all

"I don't want to be 'Halsey: America's Sweetheart', or 'Halsey: Bad Girl'. If you can sum up my

Halsey

Ashley Nicolette Frangipane

2020 L.A.
BLM PROTEST: Attended the protest to stand up against Black lives being racially profiled & killed by police. She brought first aid kits to help injured protestors.

2018 GLAMOUR WOMEN OF THE YEAR: Performed a poem called "An Inconvenient Woman" which highlighted the double standards which women face in today's society.

2018 NYC WOMEN'S MARCH: Performed a poem called "A story like mine" which deals with sexual assault, & rape.

Who is your Inspirational Woman?

A singer-songwriter, A poet, A Feminist, A protestor for racial injustice & inequality, A member & supporter of the LGBT+ community, An advocate for mental health & suicide prevention, A survivor of sexual assault, A continuing battler of Endometriosis. Someone who is not afraid to stand up for what she believes in.

This is My Inspirational Woman.

"Being bisexual, being bipolar, being biracial - it's been used to define me, but I am desperate to be indefinable." "So many people are concerned with being the perfect 'something'...I don't women globally. "I'm a human and I'm multidimensional."