A letter (copy) from Margaret Boyle, dowager countess of Orrery to Germain Colladon, 7 December 1687. NLI, Orrery Papers, Volume 5, MS. 36, no.667.

m + Charon Deckare. Brokey Chashinton & received find Rife, very high, and syon my and 2 9 se 9 st prodend to Know the Trancling a broad, yest by ingaings 2 an in formed, this fasty through the have gon, are not Vare, and of the Cap with as of Joeland, we have soft to be as god hufbarts at mee Can, which I must min your of being, other ways I that you gan ast for how it will be fiftiable to fleefe the a Brood Long at it with de Onconance, for him to Itayan 2 Det for after I received you from generic I write to you and dericted my letter to you to In Stienne Colladon according of gon Devide and in it according as you defined allowed you to Charge mee with a toil of one handred from I hope that letter is ome to get hand, when I had writ this farm I receive one from you all as other from hired from tarin where Way very flat to heave you weave fale arrived, you with with this receive one from my Brother Bustinten Dericting of greiny 20 Florence Without or three days then 20 gre on 47 Journy to Kone, which Jam till is an more than in or 6 Days Journey from Taria and Brillian the tele tele toward Thing I belove

Norfolk Schiner make my Grand Joan Karnen the account of haveing his this I leave to be finit if for you to take of the month and to Itop yo owned if get forstman lan buy yo moat and the it, which more of his foundary and and Brocking and the find and some one Shen to be in pention, it to be fulled accelerys, and this way my brother ? Jays with be the Best for you and the best of your and the best of your as you got 20 fores Thee heave from you and whether you Can form thence Chorge Bills one ne that I may according by Storows which Way to fuffit you gay for realion the thirt will be needfall for hunder

Courtesy of the National Library of Ireland. Photographs: Ann-Maria Walsh, 15 August 2019.